FullNet Expands Coverage Into Northeast Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK – FullNet Communications, Inc. (“FullNet”)(FULO – OTC Bulletin Board) today announced the acquisition of the Internet access customers and associated equipment of Northeast Rural Services, a subsidiary of Northeast Oklahoma Electric Cooperative, Inc., operating under the Rectec brand name, in the Oklahoma cities of Adair, Jay, Pryor, Wyandotte, Leach, Colcord and Moseley.

Commenting on the acquisition, founder and CEO Timothy J. Kilkenny said, “This acquisition increases our dial-up customer base by in excess of 31% and represents a continuation of our commitment to bridge the digital divide in rural Oklahoma.”

FullNet is a facilities-based Integrated Communications Provider headquartered in Oklahoma City, engaged in consumer and business Internet services, including 1) dial-up, DSL, dedicated and broadband wireless access, with customers in 32 communities in Oklahoma, and 2) web hosting, server co-location and telecommunications premise co-location, with customers throughout the United States and more than 40 foreign countries.
